They are scanned copies of what I received. The originals were left under my doormat in a manila envelope. When I found them parts of them were wet from when my wife over watered the flowers on the front steps.

Mr. [REDACTED] – for clarification, are the attached documents exactly how you received them from the anonymous depositor?

Good Morning Agent Benedict,

After searching I found the scanned copies of the files left under my doormat by the person who identified themselves as a USSS Special Agent.

Please confirm receipt.

Thank you and have a nice weekend,

From: Benedict, Michael <michael.benedict@oig.dhs.gov>

Agent Benedict,

I would like to submit this addition information as evidence for DHS-OIG's consideration.

In the USSS Request for Admissions (attached as Exhibit #3) the USSS admits as True (Item #1) that "Special Agent Ellen Ripperger told the Complainant he failed his polygraph examination with respect to questions on drug use and past serious undetected crimes."

Ripperger states in her Deposition on Page 98 Line 18-19 which I highlighted in RED as a lie:

18 Q Did you tell him he failed? (Mr. Gagliardo)

19 A No. (Ripperger)

Either Special Agent Ripperger lied during her deposition on this element, or the USSS was not truthful in the Admissions they made to us under discovery. There are no other possibilities.

Thanks,
