Dear Acting Director Apol,

I am requesting the United States Office of Government Ethics investigate the following actions by the Department of Homeland Security Office of the Inspector General.

A situation has arisen where the Department of Homeland Security Office of the Inspector General (DHS-OIG) was provided clear and convincing physical evidence that members of the United States Secret Service (USSS) must have committed one or more criminal actions. The DHS-OIG chose (1) not to investigate the matter, (2) referred the matter back to the United States Secret Service, the agency accused of committing the criminal activity, to investigate itself. (3) Further, DHS-OIG reclassified serious criminal misconduct (perjury by a Special Agent and destruction of evidence ordered produced by a judge) as a lack of "professional responsibility."

I am formally requesting a written opinion from your office if any or all of these three actions rise to the level of ethical violations, and if so, how they will be dealt with.

Actions such as those committed by DHS-OIG undermine both our faith in law enforcement and the ability of our citizens to trust our government.

I have attached the initial complaint to DHS-OIG, the physical forensic analysis provided to DHS-OIG, and my correspondence to DHS-OIG (also copied below) articulating my concerns with both their ethical behavior and their ability to function both as a law enforcement agency and an institution by which American's can place their trust in.

Thank you for your time and attention in this matter,

Sincerely,
